Every Quilt Tells a Story

Our personal stories, as quilters, often center around our homes. The places where we enter the world, grow, love, raise families, cry, mourn and rejoice can not help but influence our creative life as quilters.

This year's challenge is to illustrate some of that "home life" in a challenge quilt. You may think of your family home, your home of origin, a foster home, a broken home, a home ravaged by natural disaster, a historic home that you love, the home of a friend or beloved pet. Turn that thought into a quilt. You can be quite literal (an applique of the White House in D.C.) or symbolic (a log cabin block in your mother's favorite colors).

Let your heart guide your hands!

2018 TQG CHALLENGE RULES:

- ❖ Start by purchasing a package of the challenge fabrics (four fat eighths) for $5.00 at any guild meeting. You must use some of each of these fabrics although the amount is left to your vision and imagination; you will supplement the project with fabrics from your stash.
- ❖ Each entry can not exceed 80" ~~in diameter~~. perimeter - Sleeve of a suit.
