As I catch my breath, I must say that the TQG 2016 Quilt

Show “Quilters Rock the Beach”

was a big hit! I could not be more proud of the members of the quilt show committee! We planned, we publicized, we fretted, and we worked hard together; how could the quilt show not be successful? I want to thank the membership of TQG for your support throughout the year of planning, for your encouragement to the committee members, and for your participation either by registering an item for exhibit, volunteering to help in various duties of the quilt show, make purchases at the vendors or by simply attending the quilt show!

I personally thank Debby Coleman for being the Vice Chair for the quilt show. She was there for all of us wearing many hats during the course of the quilt show and she kept me sane!

Thank you to Lorrie Ames for being the official recorder (scribe) of the “goings on” at our committee meetings. I know that I conduct a swift, all business and productive meeting which can be difficult to follow let alone take the minutes for documentation.

Thank you, Mary Alice Hormell, for being the quilt show committee treasurer. Mary kept all of us mindful of our budget, even if we did want to splurge a little, and she was my “little voice of reason” on what we could realistically expend monies for and what we needed to realistically decline expenditures for.

Ann Walls, your experience with Excel and spreadsheets and having done Registrations before, saved the committee a lot of preparation time to begin canvassing for membership to enter items for the quilt show.

Millie Johnson & Lola McCracken, what can I say! Your due diligence in “spreading the word” anywhere and everywhere you could possibly get us some publicity—you two just “got-er-done”!! I am over the moon at the amount of “ink” TQG 2016 Quilt Show was afforded because of your hard work!

If you haven’t had the opportunity to serve as a quilt show committee member, there is an awful lot of work “behind the scene” that happens. The committee Members at Large, Betts Werbiskis and Heather Hancsak, did anything and everything. Thank you for “playing with us” and being a true “team player”.

I had a fantastic committee to work with, as it was not so apparent to the general membership every little task that this committee performed. I encourage TQG members to thank the quilt show committee and to consider joining the committee for the 2018 quilt show.

The 2016 Quilt Show Committee held their “wrap up” meeting on July 7th and I want to pass along some of the results from the quilt show.

1. CAPE HENRY FIELD HOUSE:

Emphatically positive comments or feedback from TQG members, quilt show vendors and general attendees about the venue for the quilt show. The large space was open, cheerful, always clean and the lighting was superb. The only issue was with the A/C and it being pretty cold. The Cape Henry’s facility managers really tried their best to correct this, but it was a constant battle and a lot had to do with the change in the external weather and the vast size of the facility. Our committee highly recommends to the 2018 quilt show committee to consider using Cape Henry field house venue for the future.

2. TICKET SALES: Advanced ticket vouchers totaled 133 sold, and tickets sales at the door totaled 769, giving a grand total of 902 tickets sold. That also means there were 902 “Quilters Rock the Beach” pins given out.

3. ART WORK & DESIGN: A huge thank you to TQG member Addie Roark for her extraordinary design of the quilt show logo, pin, advertising posters, post cards, etc. that we got to publish anywhere we could!

By the way, we will be selling the quilt show pins at the August, September, October, & November Chapter meetings for anyone anyone who wishes to purchase them. All the proceeds will go back into the TQG Executive Board Treasury.

4. THE BIG QUESTION? HOW DID WE DO FINANCIALLY?

Well, we did very well! As of July 7th, the Gross Income is $30,208.00; the expenses to date is $26,056.89 (there are few more receipts still pending submission); leaving a Net Income of $4,151.11. After all the receipts have been turned in for payment, the Net Income will be less by a few hundred dollars, so I can safely say we made about $3,900.00 clear profit. This money will be transferred to the Executive Board Treasury to go toward the guild's education fund.

5. VENDORS: We had 17 vendors at the quilt show. Every vendor was delighted with the facility and with the attendance of the quilt show. Each vendor had a successful vending experience at the quilt show and all have voiced their enthusiastic desire to return as vendors for our 2018 quilt show. I must say that when your vendors are "happy campers" and have asked us to be invited back, that speaks volumes about the success of our quilt show and about the two ladies that took care of the vendors, Jennifer Griffin & Martha Schwegler. Thank you both so very much for your care and facilitation of the vendors. A few of the vendors that have vended at the Mid-Atlantic Quilt Festival produced by Mancuso and have vended at the North Carolina Quilt Symposium commented that they had better success at our quilt show and were also impressed with the quality of quilts we had on exhibit! So, TQG members pat yourselves on the back for a job well done!

6. CHALLENGE: There were 31 Challenge entries on exhibit out of the 64 that purchased the Challenge kits. That is 48% and what a superb rendition of "Quilters Rock the Beach" there was on display! I hope that everyone took the opportunity to really look at the Challenge entries as they were sensational! I watched as people gazed and closely examined the entries and there were smiles all around! For those who submitted their interpretation of the quilt show theme, VERY, VERY WELL DONE! The winners of the Challenge are: Bev Toole – 1st Place; Jo Corso – 2nd Place; and Diane Bennett – 3rd Place. Wilma Gerald & Jackie Gaskins did a wonderful job with the Challenge this year and I hope you will give them a "big Thank You" for taking on this task. The only regret that I have is that we ran out of display racks and were not able to hang the Challenge entries for viewing. We are recommending to the TQG Executive Board to research and purchase more poles and quilt racks for future quilt shows so we can display all the entries appropriately.

7. JUDGING CATEGORIES: There were 10 categories identified to enter or register a quilted item for exhibit. If you wished to compete for 1st Place, 2nd Place and Special Awards, the entry had to be entered for judging. Jane Ann Snyder found our judge for this year's quilt show and Jane Ann also "hosted" our judge by opening her home to her for accommodations. We had 110 entries judged by Beverly Fine and were awarded ribbons. Photos of the winning quilts appear in this newsletter.

A few things we learned and will pass on to the 2018 quilt show committee:

- There needs to be a category identified for Whole Cloth Hand or Machine Quilted
- The Machine Quilted – Pieced category needs to be divided into "Large" and "Small" categories with specific dimensions of the size qualifier for large and small. There were over 140 quilts entered in this category this year and we had over 40 entered for judging. By splitting this into 2 separate categories, it will offer more fairness in competition.
- Use a different method of attaching registration information to the entry rather than using pins
- Consider adding a category for "Wool Quilts"

I have heard that some members who entered their quilt for judging did not receive their "Judge's Comments" form when they picked up their respective quilt at the close of the quilt show, June 18th, 2016. If you are one of those missing their "Judge's Comments," please contact me by email at karanfisher@cox.net or by phone at (757) 761-1173. I will need your full name, the category number, and the quilt's name/title when you contact me so I have a reference point to research your entry.

8. SILENT AUCTION: Again, all of you came through with your generous donations to help make the Silent Auction very profitable. It is always the busy, busy area of the quilt show and is a flurry of joy and excitement when the buyer gets just what they were looking for at the end of the day.

Another successful Silent Auction orchestrated by Alexis Gardner, Faye Hannah & Nancy McLaulin (and also the many who strategically sorted through the fabrics, notions, rulers, etc and created the lovely bundles on display for purchase). The total funds raised by the Silent Auction was $4,155.37 after expenses. YAAHHHOOO!

9. SPECIAL EXHIBITS: We invited 4 groups as Special Exhibits for this year's quilt show to show what community services TQG supports, so Quilts of Valor (QOV) and ALS Hopes & Dreams Foundation accepted our invitation. We were delighted with the attention these two exhibits garnered in order to further support their cause. I hope this will be considered again in future quilt shows. A real treat for us was on Saturday, June 18, 2016. On this day during the quilt show, Les & Elaine Page were fortunate to do a "QOV Presentation" to Deputy Officer Jones who was at the show for our security. What made it doubly great is that so many people from the general public, the facility managers and TQG members were present to witness an extraordinary moment. Karin McElvein sent letters of invitation for the Special Exhibits and I thank you very much for taking on this task. Super job!

10. COMMITTEE RAFFLE QUILT

"JEWELS ON THE BEACH": and the winner is.....Denise McCue!!! I won't share with you where Denise was when I called her to let her know the good news except that she was in Fredricksburg, VA. If you want to know the rest of the story.....ask Denise! Anyway, she was extremely excited about her good fortune and I am pleased to report that, after expenses, the committee raffle quilt brought in $344.53. Great job to Rosemary Rooney and Sybill Magrill in designing the quilt, cutting kits for each of the committee members to make the blocks, piecing the top, then binding the quilt and getting tickets available at chapter meetings, Spring Fling and the quilt show for us to purchase.

11. CAFÉ: Leia Summerlin headed up the Café for us again for this quilt show. We had Jason's Deli as the caterer for the sandwiches and directly purchased beverages & cookies from CostCo. After all was said and done, our sales for the Café totaled $1,943.00, which was $146.98 short of breaking even. Thank you, to Leia and her crew for a well run Café and bright shining smile throughout the quilt show!

12. DOOR PRIZES: What a fantastic job Linda Kelley and Darlene Price did with all of the donated/gifted door prizes from businesses and individuals for us to give away to ticket winners. Throughout the day on Friday & Saturday, door prizes were given away by chance of the door prize ticket given with paid admission to the quilt show. This year we didn't interrupt the ambience of the quilt show with hourly announcements of numbers and you could check to see if you were a winner right away without having to wait to see if your number would be called out. The feedback of using this method has been mixed, but Linda & Darlene both did great with contacting a lot of contributors for door prizes and for putting it all together.

13. APPRAISALS: We always want to offer to our members and the general public the opportunity to have a quilt appraised and this year we invited Phyllis Twigg Hatcher. She was kept busy both days of the quilt show and was able to take some "walk-in" appointments as well. Thank you, Trish Janzen, for arranging this years appraiser. Also, thank you to Jane Ann Snyder for "hosting" Phyllis and her husband by opening her home to accommodate them.

14. RIBBONS: I hope everyone took the time to appreciate the Award Ribbons placed onto the winning quilts by category and the Special Awards. The ribbons are the creative vision of Ann Marie Hennett and her ribbon making committee of Elaine Page, Nancy Zarse & the Piecemakers Bee. If you are one of our members that was awarded a ribbon, congratulations!

15. TIPS & TRICKS: Thank you Margo Bavry for canvassing the guild members to submit their personal "Tips & Tricks" to be prepared in a tri-fold brochure and included as a handout inside the quilt show program. If you have one, try out some of the ideas to see if they work for you. You may be surprised! If you threw yours away or simply lost it, maybe we will include them in a future newsletter.

14. QUILT SHOW PROGRAM: I must confess that when I began to work on the 2016 program I thought to myself, "This won't be a problem because I have the 2014 template, and it won't take me any time at all to get this done." Well, what a fool I was....I know just enough about computer programs such as MS Word, MS Excel and Adobe Reader and formats such as PDF's and JPG's that I could figure things out.....RIGHT? Well, guess again. I started receiving paid advertisements via email in various formats, then I couldn't convert them because I didn't have all of the "magical conversion programs" and I AM AN IDIOT!!! Thinking I could just whip this out---HAH! Well, the stress glands were full open and I was sweating "buckets"!!!! Then I was making reminder calls to guild members that may submit an ad for the program when I connected with Bunnie Cleland.....AAAAAAHHHHHH!!! (beautiful angelic choir singing praise). Bunnie did want to place an advertisement into the program and she politely said, "If you need any help with the program, I am be available." I don't think she knew what she just offered up to me....nuck, nuck, nuck. So, I put on my best "poor me I am so pitiful voice" and I was rescued from the agony. THANK YOU, THANK YOU BUNNIE CLELAND!!! She really saved me from a potential failure! So, if you have a program, please take a look at it because it is very professionally put together!

15. SET-UP/BREAK DOWN: Debi Harding is a magician and if you don't agree, then come and help with the setting up and the dismantling of the quilt show. This year we had 294 quilts hung by 11:45 a.m. Thursday before the opening day of the quilt show. Many factors came into play to make this happen. First, we loaded a U-Haul truck with our quilt racks, poles & bases, containers of supplies for the café and general supplies, smaller cornices for hanging items, etc. from TQG's storage shed to deliver to the Cape Henry Field House the afternoon before the "set-up day."

Also, Sybil Magrill brought 9 Navy Corpsmen who work for her at Portsmouth Naval Hospital, and many spouses came and helped with setting up all the quilt racks, hanging all of the quilts, as well as setting-up tables & chairs. These volunteers also lent a hand to the vendors when they arrived.

Then on the last day of the show many spouses, sisters, brothers, parents, teenage/young adult children and friends of TQG members lent a hand at taking down the hung quilts, bagging them, breaking down all of the quilt racks & pole bases, packing containers, loading all of this onto the U-Haul truck again.....

AND THEN driving to the storage shed and unloading the U-Haul truck into the storage shed in an organized manner. We even impressed the young sailors, I believe! We certainly impressed the facility managers of Cape Henry at how we transformed their Field House into a beautiful quilt show!!

Debi Harding, we are very lucky to have you!

And thank you to David Johnson & Millie's family, Carl Coleman, Graham Fox, Tim Dull, John Neidig, the children of Susan Newsom, the children of Heather Hancsak and the many TQG members who came out and volunteered their time & energy helping to create a beautiful, magnificent & fun quilt show!!

Lastly, it has been my pleasure to have served TQG and its membership as your Quilt Show Chair. The entire committee did a superb job and everyone was so professional, cooperative, and helpful. I do hope that more of you decide to become a more active part of the guild by being on a board or committee. All of us benefit from those who serve!!

Sincerely,

Karan Fisher

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM JANE ANN SNYDER:

It has come to the attention of the show committee that a few members whose quilts were judged did not receive their judging form. There were completed forms for all judged quilts. If you are one of the few who did not receive your form please call to let us know yours is missing.

If by chance you received a judging form that was not for your quilt please let us know so it can be sent to the correct person. While the forms do not have a members name on them, we can identify the owner by the number listed on the form.

If the above applies to you, give Jane Ann Snyder a call at 436-4328 or 434-3610

Lynnhaven "River Now" Needs Quilters

The Lynnhaven "River Now," Brock Environmental Center, and Pearl School Organization www.lynnhavenrivernow.org/about/ needs the assistances of a quilting bee and/or longarm quilters. Part of the organization works with 80 schools in the Hampton Roads area on teaching children environmental awareness and water conservation. They are working with schools to design quilt blocks. There will eventually be between forty and a hundred six inch finished squares that children across the region will design this fall as part of the Pearl School program. The organization is looking for a quilting bee to make 1 or 2 quilt tops by trimming, sashing, and joining the quilt squares. They are also looking for someone to quilt the tops. The Lynnhaven River Now Organization will supply all materials. They plan on turning over the materials by the first of November and would like to display the finished quilts starting in January. The quilt or quilts will be displayed and exhibited at the Brock Environmental Center and other environmental museum venues for one year. The quilts maybe raffled off after the year of exhibition to raise money for the organization. If you are interested contact Judy Ullman, Educational Coordinator at 962-5398 (jody@lnnow.org) or Norene Skiles 486-3871 (lultwocreate@yahoo.com)
